Poker Tells Essentials

Synopsis

Joe Navarro, the retired FBI Agent and Poker Tells Expert has put together his favorite fifteen articles on poker tells. These articles had been previously published in a variety of magazines (Bluff, Ante Up) and some on the internet. Now all together in this booklet, readers have a quick, but authoritative, guide on key poker tells. In this booklet Joe covers all the important material, including:- How to observe properly - How to develop intelligence on your fellow players- Tells of the face, arms, hands, and torso- How to best interpret the tells you observe- What are the most authentic tells- How to unveil bluffers- How to prepare for big tournaments- How the comfort/discomfort paradigm can help you to see tells like never before. Written after "Read â €em and Reap" came out, Joe covers tells that were not originally published in that groundbreaking book. For years, thousands of players have benefitted from Joeâ €™s work, this adds to the seminal work in "Read â €em and Reap" as well as Joeâ €™s seminars at the WSOP Academy. Written specifically for poker players, this information will help you understand your own tells, how to conceal them, and how unmask the hidden meaning of your opponents tells. So if you want a quick review of the most accurate tells of the forehead, eyes, nose, mouth, chin, and face, then this is the reference for you.

Customer Reviews

I really enjoy Joe Navarro books. I have several books of his and they have great insight to poker tells that are missed in some other books. His books have great tips on body language that are overlooked in other books of tells. I would highly recommend any book by Joe to add to your arsenal of picking up on tells!

The author spends more time talking about himself than he does on the essentials of poker tells. Don't buy it's a waste of time and money

Really well done. Gives basic, simple details of specific things to look for. It should be titled 'Gambling for Dummies'.
